

“ClicData allows for FTI to be flexible and deliver more value to our clients. By partnering with ClicData, we are able to improve reporting and reporting management.”

Chris G. Managing Partner at FTI Consulting

Supporting Expert Services

FTI Consulting has partnered with ClicData to transition from an outdated legacy visualization product for their healthcare analytics solution platform. ClicData is now providing dashboard and visualization including more than 140 dashboards for 14 major US hospital groups with over 2,200 users with a more efficient and modern visualization delivery platform. ClicData's strong dashboard design features and continuing evolution of analytic capabilities are key drivers that address FTI's current needs and allow for expansion of existing products in the healthcare analytics market place based on current and future client demands.
